Dinners, fashion show, movie and more at Acton's Active Living Centre

By Julie Conroy
Hillsview Active Living Centre-Acton

On Tuesday, April 5 Hillsview Active Living Centre held its AGM. I will give you the highlights next week.

Tickets are now on sale for the Alia Fashion show on Tuesday, April 19. Watching the models wearing the beautiful spring and summer clothing should put a spring in your step. It is always a well-attended event, and the models look forward to wearing the very stylish and comfortable clothes.

April 12-16 is Volunteer Appreciation Week, and to celebrate and show appreciation for all the many volunteer hours worked there will be a Volunteer Appreciation Breakfast on Thursday, April 14. If you volunteered during 2015 you should have received your invitation. Please let staff know you are planning to attend. This year it will be held in the newly expanded Hillsview Active Living Centre Georgetown. The location rotates each year. Without volunteers the Centres would not be as active, interesting and offer as many diverse programs. If you are planning to go and can either offer a ride or need a ride there is a sign-up sheet at the reception desk.

Pat Irwin asked me to mention that the Senior Hikers are looking for new hikers to join them on Friday mornings. They meet at the Centre at 10 a.m. and hike the trails in the Halton Hills area. If you would like more information on the hikes please call the Centre and leave your phone number or email address and someone will contact you.

Everyone enjoyed the movie on Tuesday, March 29. The next movie will be The Martian starring Matt Damon. Show time is Tuesday, April 26 at 1 p.m.

The next meeting of the monthly Book Club will be on April 27 at 7 p.m. The book you will be reading is State of Wonder by Ann Patchett.

Tickets are still available for the Celebrating Spring Social Dinner and dance on Wednesday, April 13. Jamie Todd is providing the entertainment; chicken pot pie is on the menu. The cut-off date for the dinner is Monday, April 11 at 4 p.m. Don't be disappointed, get your ticket early!

Shirley Hunter was the winner of the Spring Basket which was drawn at the end of March and Pam Heutsch won the free birthday pedicure donated monthly by Dorri Bland of The Downtown Spa, Georgetown.

Lunch on Friday, April 14 will be chicken fingers.

The weekly 50/50 was not won, so the next amount to be won should be around $120.
