Cancer Society asking for volunteers during Daffodil Month

The local Canadian Cancer Society is currently looking for volunteers for Daffodil Days to be site managers and to help sell daffodil pins at various retail locations in Georgetown.

Volunteers are critical to its accomplishments and the Cancer Society wouldn't be able to support, inform and empower those touched by cancer without you.

Volunteering with the Canadian Cancer Society is an opportunity for to make a positive impact in the community, to be part of a team, share your experience, learn new skills and develop lasting friendships.

There is a great need for volunteers to sell daffodil pins. Shifts are three hours and volunteers can go online, sign up and pick a shift. Site managers play an important role by assisting our volunteers who are on site selling daffodil pins. The time commitment is minimal, between one and two hours per day.

Drivers are also needed to deliver daffodil pin orders to businesses in Georgetown.

Daffodil Days take place from Thursday, March 31 to Sunday, April 3 and again from Thursday, April 7 to Sunday, April 10.

To sign up to for a daffodil shift, please click on <http://halton.mycsschedule.ca/> or go to www.mycsschedule.ca
