ARCTIC CHAMPION IN STRENGTH AND SPEECH

Halton Hills Inuit Outreach Spring Social Justice Series welcomed Johnny Issaluk, a world champion in Arctic high kick and a medal winner yielding more than 200 career medal finishes at the Arctic Winter Games and the Inuit Winter Olympics at a fundraiser Saturday at St. Paul's Parish Hall in Norval. Left, Issaluk demonstrates his strength and power training in the face to face arm pull against former Georgetown resident Shaun Radigan. For more on this story, see pgs. 16-17.

OPP suspends water search for missing Halton Hills woman

KAWARTHA LAKES— Police have suspended the search for a 28-year-old Halton Hills woman missing for eight days after the canoe she was in capsized in Pigeon Lake on April 3.

The missing woman has been identified by OPP as Angel Villeneuve-Steadman.

Kawartha Lakes OPP have conducted an exhaustive search, including a ground search by the Emergency Response Team, a water search by the Underwater Search and Recovery Unit and a search from the air with their Aviation Services.

OPP say three people had set out at approximately 5 p.m. that Sunday to retrieve a pedal boat that had drifted from shore. The canoe flipped and only one of the three— a 19-year-old man— made it back to shore. No one was wearing a life-jacket.

Police began their search that evening, using the boat launch at Victoria Place as a base.

The body of 23-year-old Spencer Dunn of Scarborough was recovered on April 5.

Anyone with information is asked to contact OPP at 1-888-310-1122 or 705-324-6741.

A GoFundMe account has been set up for Ms Steadman's family. To donate, visit: <https://www.gofundme.com/8dxqr49w>.

Members of the OPP's Underwater Search and Rescue Recovery Unit search Pigeon Lake for the body of a Halton Hills woman.
