

SALUTE TO VOLUNTEERS

Province honours local residents with Ontario Volunteer Service Award

Halton Hills volunteers were among the 623 residents of Mississauga and surrounding areas, including Brampton, Milton, Etobicoke, Georgetown, Acton, Caledon and Halton Hills, who received the Ontario Volunteer Service Award in a ceremony over three evenings, April 4-6 at the Mississauga Convention Centre.

The awards were for their dedication and continuous years of service to local organizations, such as three who Acton who have volunteered for 50 years each.

- Bernie Bradner, Genealogical Society - Halton-Peel, Georgetown, 20 Years
- Vicki Klutt, Windrush Stable Therapeutic Riding Centre, Halton Hills 5 Years
- Emily Boycott, Darling Home for Kids Acton, 10 Years

A few people from Halton Hills, posed after being awarded Provincial Volunteer Service Awards for years of volunteer service with their various organizations. From left are: Doug Pratt, 20 years, Acton Curling Club; Linda McCracken, 5 years, Acton Curling Club; Patricia Daleman, 10 years, 1st Acton Scouting; Emily Boycott, 10 years, Darling Home for Kids; Judy Scott, 20 years, Acton Curling Club; Jay Jackson, 20 years, Halton Hills Library; and Frank Loreto, 25 years, Halton Hills Library.

Photo by George Henderson

- Inez Brennan, Knox Presbyterian Church - Acton, Acton, 50 Years
- Lenore Caruso, Breast Cancer Society of Canada, Georgetown, 15 Years
- Patricia Daleman, Acton Scouts Canada, Acton, 10 Years
- Colleen Darrell, Caledon Hills Bruce Trail Club, Erin, 10 Years
- Shirley Dyc, Knox Presbyterian Church— Acton, Acton, 20 Years
- Bruce Gemmel, Ontario Electric Railway Historical Association Georgetown, 5 Years

• Dawn Howe, Bennett Health Care Centre, Georgetown, 25 Years

• Jay Jackson, Halton Hills Public Library, Norval, 25 Years

• Ron Jeffery, Acton Curling Club, Acton 20 Years

• Anne Lanthier, Knox Presbyterian Church - Acton, Rockwood, 10 Years

• Jack Lanthier, Knox Presbyterian

Church - Acton, Rockwood, 10 Years

• Frank Loreto, Halton Hills Public Library, Georgetown, 25 Years

• Linda McCracken, Acton Curling Club, Norval, 5 Years

• Lois Norton, Knox Presbyterian Church— Acton, Acton, 50 Years

• Juliana Pileci, Big Brothers Big Sisters of Halton, Georgetown, Youth

• Faye Pink, Knox Presbyterian Church— Acton, Acton, 50 Years

• Doug Pratt, Acton Curling Club, Acton, 20 Years

• Dave Rigby, Acton Curling Club, Georgetown, 15 Years

• Judy Scott, Acton Curling Club, Acton 20 Years

• Dave Williams, Links2Care, Georgetown, 15 Years

Krista Nicholls, right, receives a Community Service Award from Elaine Scrivener, President of Community Development Halton. Submitted photo

Cheers to Volunteers

Volunteer Halton/Community Development Halton presented volunteer awards to local citizens at a breakfast earlier this week.

Krista Nicholls (left photo) received a Community Volunteer Award for her service with the Georgetown Special Olympics, while (right photo), Cheers to Volunteers Awards were presented to Marjorie McDonough, who volunteers with Hillsview Active Living Centre-Acton, Shirley Feddema who serves at Link2Care and Taylor Grist who volunteers at Georgetown Little Theatre.

Elaine Scrivener, President of Community Development Halton (left) and Mayor Rick Bonnette (second from right) presents Cheers to Volunteers Awards to Taylor Grist (Georgetown Little Theatre), Shirley Feddema (Links2Care) and Marjorie McDonough (Hillsview Active Living Centre-Acton). Submitted photo