THE BEDAL BOYS ARE BACK AT IT AGAIN: For the third April in a row, the Bedal Boys (Jacob, Zachary and Sammy) are running a lemonade stand every Saturday in April outside their home (9 a.m. to 12 p.m.) at Atwood Ave. The boys are raising money for the MS Walk, in Milton, that they do with their dad, Brian, every May. The boys are committed to the MS cause because their mom, Laura, was diagnosed with MS in 2011. They boys have been very lucky that their friends, Easton and Payton Heddington, have also come to help flag down cars and get attention to the stand. Despite the very winter weather we have experienced so far in April, each week the boys have managed to raise more than $100! They are excited to see how much better they can do as the weather warms up this weekend. The Real Canadian Superstore generously continued their donation of $25 to the boys so that they could get the inventory they need for the stand. Above, from left, are Zachary and Jacob, 12, Easton, 2, Sammy, 9 and Payton, 8.
