Matthew Pope returns to Georgetown to headline Music at 2 Classical Series

This Sunday, April 16 at 2 p.m., pianist and local talent Matthew Pope will be featured performing an all-Debussy program of Preludes and Etudes at the Helson Gallery in the Halton Hills Library & Cultural Centre, 9 Church St., Georgetown.

MATTHEW POPE

Pope began his serious study of piano in Georgetown with concert pianist Ron Greidanus and has completed both Undergraduate and Master's degrees in Music Performance at University of Western Ontario (UWO). He has shown a remarkable gift for the late 18th and early 19th century French composers, and has been awarded numerous scholarships and awards over his academic tenure, including the UWO Gold Medal for Piano Performance in 2013.

He is Music Director at St. Luke's Anglican Church in London, and maintains a small private teaching studio. Admission is by freewill offering; however, a donation of $10 is suggested.

This talented young musician is currently studying with John Paul Bracey at UWO, working towards a Doctoral degree in Musical Arts.

Put spring into a container at library workshop

Award-winning container and floral designer Nancy Wilson will lead a workshop, sponsored by the Halton Hills Library and the Georgetown Horticultural Society on Wednesday, April 27, 7-9 p.m. at the Georgetown library.

Learn what plants to use to get your containers off to a great start. Register at the library's service desk or call 905-873-2681, ext. 2511.
