GDHS wins Cook Off

The second-annual Georgetown Bread Basket High School Cook Off featured teams from two local secondary schools in a culinary contest at the Real Canadian Superstore's Cooking School.

Students from Georgetown District High School's Chef Training program and a Hospitality course group from Christ the King Secondary School's Speciality High Skills

Major squared off, using items and ingredients found in the local food bank to prepare two dishes per entry.

Each team also received a $10 gift card to purchase anything they needed in the store.

The GDHS group won the event and got to spend $100 at the Superstore on groceries that they felt should be made available to clients of the Bread Basket.
