Williams Mill celebrates local artist

Artist Mary Ellen Chapman was celebrated at an evening reception this week at Williams Mill gallery and gift shop. The artist uses an encaustic technique which mixes beeswax with pigment to build a painting with texture.

Chapman studied Art at the University of Toronto. To inspire and inform her subjects in nature, Chapman has lived in areas such as Owen Sound and British Columbia.

The show, called Clouds Matter, features themes from nature including water, waterlilies, trees and sheep. Each painting is layered to create a raised, textured surface, hinting at the form of the subject.

Although the show is selling well, there are still some key pieces left. The gallery and gift shop is open Wednesday through Sunday, from 12 to 5 p.m. The show continues until May 16.
