Wallis for Wellness offers massages, advice to medical staff

The staff of Dr. Caroline Teske & Associates Optometrists office in the Professional Arts Pharmacy building in Georgetown were literally wowed with random acts of wellness recently.

It was almost like a flash mob of health professionals from the Wallis For Wellness

Brampton Massage Clinic descended on the Sinclair Ave. office to provide massages and other lifestyle or medical advice to the staff.

Margaret Wallis-Duffy said the surprise WOW visit is a way for her business to give back to the community and create awareness about healthy living.
