BUSINESS

Barburrito officially opened its new Guelph St. franchise in Georgetown across from Christ the King Secondary School in mid-April and the owners say business has been brisk. On hand for the opening were Town of Halton Hills Councillor David Kentner, left, Barburrito owner Kaushal Ghandi, fourth from left, Mayor Rick Bonnette cutting the ribbon and Barburrito director of franchise development Sameer Lalji, far right.

Barburrito opens in Georgetown

Barburrito Mexican Quick Service Restaurant opened a new location at 162 Guelph St. in Georgetown this month.

Located across the road from Christ the King School, the new owner is Kaushal Ghandi who says business has been brisk since opening in mid-April.

Barburrito is a concept featuring gourmet burritos, quesadillas, tacos and salads. Mexican cuisine is amongst the fastest-growing cuisines in North America, and Barburrito offers it in a quality, quick and affordable way.

With 30 locations in Ontario, and new locations opening up in Quebec and Alberta, Barburrito has been delivering uncompromising quality for today's busy consumers who are looking for a tasty, fresher alternative to traditional fast food restaurants.
