Georgetown woman assaults five in Walmart

Five assault charges were laid against a Georgetown woman Sunday evening following a series of alleged unprovoked attacks at the Walmart Supercentre on Guelph St.

One of the victims was a six-year-old girl, who was grabbed by her hair and thrown to the ground just inside the entrance of the store at about 6:45 p.m.

Halton Regional Police said the accused and the girl did not know each other. The girl reportedly lost a tooth in the unprovoked incident after her head struck the floor.

An eight-year-old and three adults were also assaulted in the rampage, said Sgt. Barry Malciw, with each sustaining minor injuries.

Alcohol is not believed to have been a factor in the incident, Malciw added, and it hasn't been determined whether the suspect was under the influence of drugs.

Charged with assault causing bodily harm and four counts of assault is Jennifer Young Rattray, 39.
