HOWARD, Carole Lynn

(nee Hodgins)

December 31st, 1945
- June 1st, 2016

We sadly announce the passing of Carole at the Georgetown Hospital. Beloved wife of Greg for almost 49 years and loving mother of Daniel (Christine Kormos) and Christopher (April Howard), proud grandmother of Beatrix, and predeceased by her parents, Ross and Ethel Hodgins (nee Roberts). Carole was also eagerly anticipating the birth of her second grandchild from April in early July. She will be greatly missed by her family, in-laws, much-loved nieces and nephews, and her dear friends and the community at St. Andrew's United Church.

She left this world as she lived - surrounded by, and radiating, love. She lived to love, and delighted in connections among the many important to her. Her gentle strength, steadfast devotion, and sense of humour will be profoundly missed, but her legacy of love lives on.

Carole was born in London, Ontario, attended South Collegiate and trained at Victoria Hospital. She worked as a Registered Nurse in hospitals in Hazelton, British Columbia; Lusaka, Zambia; Grimsby and Georgetown, Ontario; and later worked in her community as a VON nurse.

We deeply appreciate the compassionate care and wise counsel received from the many excellent doctors and nurses involved in Carole's care at Princess Margaret Hospital in Toronto and the Georgetown Hospital, as well as from within the family. Carole's faith and enduring grace throughout this difficult time has been an inspiration to us all.

The Visitation was held at St. Andrew's United Church, 89 Mountainview Road, South, Georgetown, Ontario 905-877-4482 on Saturday, June 4th from 2-4 pm and 7-9 pm. A celebration of Carole's life was held at St. Andrew's on Sunday, June 5th, 2016 at 3:00 pm with a luncheon that followed. In lieu of flowers, donations to the Stephen Lewis Foundation or St. Andrew's United Church would be appreciated. To send expressions of sympathy, visit

Carole said lately that, through this cancer journey, she was "learning to dance."

Now she is free to dance, unencumbered by the limits of a body.

Lloyd Allen Sharpe

August 13, 1934 - May 31, 2011

There's an empty chair at the table
An empty chair is what we see
For you have gone away somewhere
To a place beyond our dreams

We'll miss the times together
As we live our life through
But the empty chair at the table
Will always remind us of you

The memories of you will linger
Through all the days ahead
We'll think of our times together
And now the place where you've been lead

Many times we'll wish we could see you
Or hear your knock at the door
But in memory we'll never lose you
And we'll love you now and forever more.

We miss you dearly.
Love from Patti, Sherry and Peter;
Nancy and Mike; Merna and Dave

In Loving Memory of Detective
Gord McNeilly

The first Anniversary of your death is upon us. All who knew you miss you dearly, and go on with heavy hearts. Our lives have changed forever, but we go on living because those that remain are worth it. There are many things to look forward to and places to see, all of which would be better with you here. Today, like most days, we'll shed some tears and recount the good times you shared with us; wondering what might have been.

We miss you more than words can say. Special thanks to all our families, friends and neighbours.

- Love, Bob and Liz McNeilly
