Long-time ALS battle takes life of Georgetown man

It is with great sadness that the family of Scott Ross Murray, (Wendell to his friends), announce his passing at Georgetown Hospital, after a six year hard fought battle with ALS.

ALS may have taken his voice and body but his spirit, sense of humour and love for his family and friends remain. He leaves to mourn, his wife Susan and children Ben and Sarah, his parents Beth and Wendell, his sister Pam her husband Paul Patten and their children, Olivia and Owen. Also mourning his loss are Susan's family, Linda Anderson, Bill Anderson, Gord Anderson Jacqui and Justin Parker and their children Taylor, Jordan and Jackson. His many friends, aunts, uncles, and cousins will also mourn his loss.

Scott graduated from Georgetown High School and Humber College. His working career was in the food industry where he ended his career as the Director of Training for Yum! Foods. His love of sports, particularly golf and the Dallas Cowboys was a major part of his life, as well as his love for the cottage and Prince Edward Island.

His visitation was held at J.S. Jones & Son
