52 ACRES ERIN
$625,000

This property is rich with various habitats and abundant wildlife, tributary of the Speed River, hardwood bush, pond magnificent trails through managed forest, planted white pine and spruce, blinds and bridges and a wonderful camp and building site for a residence. The property has been developed and maintained by the same family for many years. I know the properties up here and I have never see the likes of this. Your life list could be your trophy!

LIZ MESSAGE PLOG

Hi! I just wanted to take a moment to share our news. Bonnie and I have been together for many years. I joke about retiring when my old BlackBerry gives up, or when my circle ink stamp runs out. But the truth is I love what I do and well we are expanding our team to include Ann Shanahan. Ann is a familiar face around Erin and she has such a wonderful energy. If you don't know and love Ann already I know you will! Liz
