Kelly Micallef

Culligan Water

Kelly Micallef handles the sales portfolio for the Georgetown/Acton & surrounding areas. Culligan Water is celebrating its 80th yr in business. Almost 40yrs in the Georgetown area alone. We handle most types of water testing (both city & well water) equipment repair, rentals, sales & special local events.

I started with Culligan in the Toronto/GTA area and a year later a position became available here in Georgetown. I switched immediately, knowing that I could help my fellow neighbours & be close to family & friends. With having a young family, I soon found this to be irreplaceable!

What I truly love about my job, is that when someone asks my daughter, 'What does your Daddy do?' Her smiling answer is 'He's the Culligan Man'!

I'm also fully water licensed for the The Halton Hills & surrounding areas.

If you're experiencing any Low Water pressure issues or think that your equipment needs a check up?

Please call/email me directly & I can help with a No Charge call or visit!
Mon/Sat 9am-8pm.

BILL AND LIA MCNALLY

Team McNally

Bill McNally:

Bill is a sixth generation Halton Hills resident and extremely knowledgeable about the area and real estate in general. His determination, strong work ethic, excellent people skills, and outstanding sales record set him apart from the competition. His clients appreciate his down to earth, no pressure style, his sense of humor and, most of all, his exceptional negotiating skills.

When all is said and done, Bill's clients often remark 'I'm glad I had Bill on my side!'

Lia McNally:

With a keen eye for detail, knowledge of current marketing trends, and a talent for writing, Lia positions your home for success. She will advise you on how to get your home ready for market, arrange your virtual tour, produce marketing materials, and utilize social media to showcase your home to a huge pool of potential buyers. She also keeps you up-to-date with the feedback she gathers from showings and open houses, so you'll never be left wondering.

TODD C. HEIN

Lockyer & Hein LLP Barristers & Solicitors

I have lived in Georgetown for more than 14 years. I have practiced law for nearly 20 years, and I am a partner of Lockyer + Hein LLP. Lockyer + Hein LLP came into effect July 1st, 2015. Lockyer + Hein LLP is effectively the coming together of two long-standing Brampton law firms, particularly McCabe, Filkin, Garie & Hein LLP (of which I was a partner for approximately 9 years), and Lockyer Law Professional Corporation. Lockyer + Hein LLP is a full service firm, covering virtually all main legal practice areas, including, but not limited to family/divorce, employment, civil litigation, personal injury, corporate, estates, real estate and criminal. My practice areas include family/divorce, employment, and civil litigation.

Although our main office is in Brampton, we also have offices in Caledon East and Georgetown. The Georgetown office is located at 8 Guelph Street, in the Lounsbury Life & Group Insurance Benefits building. At Lockyer + Hein LLP, our lawyers and clerks are very experienced in each area of law in which they work, so clients receive the best representation possible. We pride ourselves on taking a professional, personable and client-focused approach to providing legal services. We represent individuals as well as small to large businesses in all aspects of their legal needs.

I have been a proud member of Business in Community (BIC) Halton Hills. BIC is a terrific networking group focused on helping the Halton Hills community. For many years, I continue with that membership through Lockyer + Hein LLP. Lockyer + Hein LLP is also a proud sponsor of Georgetown rep soccer.

If you have any legal needs, you can contact us for a free consultation.
