A 31-year-old man from Halton Hills is facing assault and weapon charges after another male was stabbed in Georgetown early Tuesday afternoon.

Halton Regional Police reported that a 46-year-old man was taken to Georgetown Hospital with a stab wound to his arm following a fight with another male just across the street from Christ the King Secondary School.

A perimeter around the Georgetown Garden Centre parking lot as detectives and uniform police conducted an investigation.

The right eastbound lane of Guelph St. was closed for a couple of hours, creating a traffic snarl in the area as classes at CtK finished at 2:30 p.m.

A suspect was arrested at the scene and taken to the HRPS Milton detachment. The incident occurred at around 12:50 p.m. at the busy intersection of Guelph St. and Brucewood Dr.

The injured man was said to be in stable condition in Georgetown Hospital on Wednesday morning.

Christ the King was not locked down at any time during the incident, despite the large police presence in the area. Police believe it was an isolated incident and there was no on-going public safety concern.

There were a lot of people in the area at the time and we're appealing to people to come forward, said Sgt. Duane Bilton.

It's our understanding that video was taken with cameras and we're going to try to obtain some of that, however we have been unable to locate those people yet.

Charged with aggravated assault, weapon dangerous and carrying a concealed weapon is Anthony Faiola.

Anyone with any information is asked to contact Det. Const. Mike Maltar of the One District Criminal Investigations Bureau at 905-878-5111 ext. 2456 or Crime Stoppers at 1-800-222-8477 (TIPS).
