A treat for Mother's Day dinner

What's Cookin

smoothly and it fried up so crisp and tasty!

At my request, Michael also made spaghetti puttanesca with shrimp. I don't usually request pasta, but I was in the mood. His sauce was thick and zesty and clung beautifully to the noodles. I wish it could be Mother's Day every Sunday!

The samosas are nicest served with a little sauce; a tamarind sauce is particularly nice. You can buy tamarind sauce or some other slightly spicy sauce would be nice.

Have fun and keep cooking!

Samosas

Makes 24

DOUGH INGREDIENTS

- 2 cups flour
- One half tsp salt
- 2 tbsp vegetable oil
- Three quarters cup warm water

FILLING INGREDIENTS

- 2-and-a-half cups peeled, diced Yukon gold potatoes
- 1 tbsp cumin seed, toasted and ground
- 2 tsp coriander seed, toasted and ground
- One half tsp cayenne pepper
- 3 tbsp vegetable oil
- One half cup finely chopped onion
- 2 cloves garlic, minced
- 1 inch fresh ginger, minced
- One half cup frozen peas, thawed
- Salt and pepper to taste
- Vegetable oil for frying

METHOD

1. For the dough, combine flour and salt. Stir in oil and water. Turn dough onto lightly floured surface and knead until you have a smooth, elastic ball. Cover with plastic wrap and set aside to rest while making filling.

2. Boil potatoes in salted water until tender.

3. Heat the oil in a large fry pan. Cook onion until translucent, then add garlic and ginger and cook for 1 minute. Add toasted spices and cayenne pepper. Add peas and cooked potatoes. Add salt and pepper to taste.

4. To assemble, divide dough into 24 portions. Roll each portion into a ball. Roll out ball until flat and fairly thin. Divide filling into center of each circle of dough. Pinch dough together around filling to roughly form a triangle.

5. Fill a pot with a few inches of vegetable oil. Heat to 350 degrees F. Add samosas a couple at a time and fry until golden brown.

6. Serve samosas hot from fryer either on their own or with a tamarind sauce.
