Georgetown's Joseph Gibbons P.S. gets Toyota Evergreen makeover

A local elementary school was recently named as a beneficiary of Toyota Canada's Evergreen Foundation, which provided a grant to help spruce up the school grounds.

Fifteen trees, including Maples, Evergreens and Oaks, were planted last month just prior to the end of classes at Joseph Gibbons Public School to replace some dying pine trees on the Moore Park Cres. property.

The school had to submit an application complete with drawings to Evergreen to obtain the $1,350 in funds, and plans are in the works to start up a garden in the near future.

Parent Derek Konieczny, who is vice president of the Halton Peel Woodlands & Wildlife Stewardship, helped oversee the application process.

The Evergreen Foundation has provided more than $10 million in scholarships since its inception in 1991 to an estimated 3,000 schools across Canada for a wide variety of outdoor projects.
