Suspect sought in Georgetown LCBO theft

Halton Regional Police have released a photo and description of a man alleged to have stolen $400 worth of alcohol from the Georgetown LCBO outlet last Wednesday.

Police said the suspect walked into the LCBO at 365 Mountainview Rd. and selected several items before leaving the store without paying for the products.

He is described as a white male, 40-50 years old, averaged build and height, with medium-length brown hair and several teeth missing.

He was wearing a light-coloured collared shirt with a dark backpack and sunglasses resting on his head.

Cops hunting break-in suspects

Halton Regional Police were unable to track down four suspects last Wednesday morning (July 13) in a silver Dodge Cavalier who attempted to break into a number of homes in Georgetown South.

A break-in was reported at a residence at around 9:30 a.m. on Chetholme Pl., followed by a failed attempt to gain entry to a house on Smith Dr. through a rear patio door. A resident was at home at the time of the incident at approximately 10 a.m.

A social-media posting warned neighbours in the area that two well-dressed men knocked on the front door of a few homes, identifying themselves as Part of the Witness.

Two other men were seen in the silver Cavalier parked on the road outside, the posting claimed.

Police are asking residents in that area who have surveillance cameras to contact them if they have any information.

The suspects are described as male black, with two wearing dress shirts and one having blond highlights and spiked-up hair.

Anyone with information is asked to call the HRPS at 905-878-5511 ext. 2415.
