McDonald's donates portion of coffee sales to arenas fund

McDonald's Restaurant made its contribution to help the Stay Home & Play Campaign in Halton Hills recently reach its fundraising goal of $2.2 million.

The $25,000 donation will go towards sponsorship of one of the two ice resurfacing machines for the Acton Arenas.

McDonald's of Halton Hills owner/operators Tim & Casey O Connor donated 10 cents from every McCafe premium-brewed coffee was collected at their Georgetown and Acton restaurants for the campaign and they're doing the same for the Halton Hills Public Library.

Tim O Connor said the overwhelming support through coffee sales allowed the company to fulfill its pledge in three years two years ahead of schedule.

Even though the Stay Home & Play Campaign fundraising goal has been reached, there are other sponsorship opportunities and personalized naming for local residents for seating, dressing rooms and a lobby in Acton to help cover future expenses at the facilities.
