SCHREIBER, Audrey Jean

July 23, 1930 - July 16, 2016
Audrey Schreiber died on Saturday, July 16th, after a brief illness. She will be deeply missed by all whose lives she touched. Audrey was born in Belgrave, ON to Earl and Sara Anderson. Growing up on a farm with her beloved siblings, Pat, Muriel, Jim (Delvia), Keith (Jean) and Karen (Tom), she was both tomboy and scholar. She completed nursing school at Hamilton General Hospital in 1952, graduating first in her class. While there, Audrey made many life long friends and was introduced to the man who became the love of her life, Bill Schreiber. They married in 1952 and began life together living in a tent by the Credit River. In 1957 they built their home on the 5th Sideroad in Milton, ON. Audrey's warm smile and hospitality always welcomed all who came to the door. Audrey was a patient, loving mother to Carol (Rob), John, Vicky, Janet (Dave), Craig (Joanne), Kathy (Keith) and Mark (Trish). She devoted her life to Bill and her children and cared for Bill with her gentle strength when his health failed before he passed away in 2011. Audrey volunteered in her community, with Girl Guides and as a member of Boston Church. She continued her passion for baseball, tennis and curling. Audrey was an avid reader, enjoyed her French club and weekly card games with friends. Foremost, she loved the outdoors. Tending her garden, hiking, skiing, camping and canoeing in Muskoka and Georgian Bay with Bill and her family. In 1979 Audrey and Bill found their piece of heaven on Nares Inlet, Georgian Bay Archipelago and built a cottage there. Audrey shared her love and wisdom with her grandchildren, with whom she had a very special bond; Susan, Mark (Sarah), Travis, Tucker, Benjamin (Ava), Thomas, Joanna, Lauren (Bryce), Evan (Victoria), Emma, Julia, Wil and great-grandson, Tyler. Thank you to her family, friends and neighbors for your support. In lieu of flowers, memorial donations may be made to Boston Church or the Arthritis Society. A service celebrating Audrey's life will be held on Sunday, July 24th at 1:00 p.m. at Boston Church. Further details may be found at www.mckersie-kocher.ca.
