Local artist hosts live performance to raise funds for CMHA

A local musician is using his talents for the greater good.

John Muirhead is a 19-year-old local songwriter. On Friday, Aug 5, he is hosting a live performance at the Red Door Gallery to celebrate the release of his first CD, called Yesterday's Smile, as well as raise money for the Canadian Mental Health Association (CMHA).

Muirhead was inspired to donate the funds to CMHA after seeing the effect mental health issues has had on his immediate community. Through the pain and turmoil (mental health issues) causes, there are opportunities for the community to come together and create change in a positive way, Muirhead wrote.

Muirhead hopes the event will celebrate the inclusive community of the Halton Hills music scene as well as work to end the stigma surrounding mental health issues.

The night will also feature local musicians Lara Morrison, Sanjay Baboolal and Erica Knox, as well as local band Small Towns. Doors will open at 7:30 p.m., with a minimum donation of $5 at the door. One hundred per cent of the proceeds will go to CMHA.

This will be the first live music event at the Red Door Gallery's new location at 69 Main St. S. in Georgetown.
