Local officer awarded by Optimist Club

The Optimist Club of Halton Hills recently held its Respect For Law Night at the hall.

The purpose of the event is to honour a Law Enforcement Officer and/or member of the Halton Hills community who has served the community in an outstanding way.

This year's recipient is a member of the the Halton Regional Police: Const. Mike O Halloran. He was recognized with a plaque from the club, which was presented to him by the Optimist Respect For Law Chair, Optimist Jim Dallimore.

O Halloran was honoured for his work with youth.

The evening was attended by members of the Halton Hills club along with Insp. John Van der Lelie and Staff Sgt. Rob Lloyd from Halton Police and other guests.
