

Georgetown fall fair coming soon to Fairgrounds

As Canada prepares to celebrate its 150th anniversary, we are encouraged to research our roots and family history. This year's fair theme Sept. 9 to 11 Boots and Roots looks to the past as the path to our present and future.

Friday evening showcases local bands in a contest form The Battle of the Bands. The winner of this event will perform on the main stage on Sunday afternoon. There will be music and dancing for all when the country band and line dancers take the stage at 8:30 p.m. on Saturday night. Tyler Fergus returns to entertain with his magic on Saturday and Sunday. Be sure to bring your cameras or phones to snap your favourite photo-op with The Legion of Doom Superheroes.

Magical Midway is back this year with a new layout of rides and games located near the Park Street gate. Wristbands and weekend passes are available for purchase at Squirts Toys and Hungry Hollow Restaurant at a cost of $20 cash.

The Demolition Derby opens at 7 p.m. on Saturday night. Beer Tent patrons will be able to view this event. Although there is some additional seating, beside the track, plan to get your seat early to ensure good viewing.

The 4x4 Truck Pull is gaining in popularity each year. A display of farm machinery will delight the youngsters and also provide an insight into the costs of farming.

The Georgetown Knights of Columbus are dedicated to making the beer tent a great success. Viewing is available for the Demo Derby and intent seating is an option.
