Raise a pint for a good cause

Mark your calendars. The date is set for Head for the Hills, Georgetown's second-annual Craft Beer Festival. Saturday, Sept. 17 from 11 a.m. to 6 p.m. at the Trafalgar Sports Park in Georgetown, thousands will come together over a brew, a bite, a tune, and even a friendly game of beer pong.

The Suds:

Thirty vendors will serve up Ontario's best beer and cider.

The Grub:

Food trucks and an assortment of renowned local restaurants will offer gourmet eats for the foodie in everyone.

The Tunes:

Local musicians and bands will play everything from indie to folk to alternative rock.

The Games:

In 2015, $5,000 was raised for a local charity, Food4Kids. Once again, Food4Kids is named as the main featured charity for this year's craft beer festival. Tickets are $22 in advance and $30 at the door. Admission includes a customized Head for the Hills beer stein and four tokens for four (4 oz each) samples of beer. Additional tokens are available on-site for $1 each. For more details and tickets, visit www.headforthehills.ca/
