DINNER WITH CHONG: Conservative leadership hopeful MP Michael Chong hosted a fundraiser Aug. 23 at David's Restaurant in Erin. After the dinner, attendees who had paid $850 per plate heard how the Member from Wellington-Halton Hills hopes to rejuvenate the federal Conservative Party following last year's electoral defeat, and his ideas for the future of Canada. He fielded questions from the audience on a broad range of topics including healthcare, economic policy, municipal infrastructure, corporate and personal income tax reform, senate reform, electoral reform, indigenous peoples affairs, youth unemployment, education and environment issues.
