Culture Days coming to Halton Hills later this month

From a Comics Jam, to Doors Open and a Spoken Word Café, Halton Hills will celebrate Culture Days with a weekend of free fun-filled activities for the whole family Sept. 30, Oct. 1-2.

Discover what lies behind the scenes of interesting buildings and artist studios; participate in creating community journals, murals and music; join in discussions about the arts; marvel at the talent of our local photographers, and try some new dance moves.

Activities will be hosted throughout Halton Hills including the Acton Town Hall Centre, Downtown Georgetown, the Halton Hills Cultural Centre, the Georgetown Branch of the Halton Hills Public Library and the Red Door Gallery.

Cultural vibrancy and social well-being are two of the four key pillars of the Town's community substantiality strategy. Imagine Halton Hills and this terrific family-oriented event is another opportunity to experience the energy, uniqueness and talents of our community, said mayor Rick Bonnette.

Local events include: Adopt an Artist, Be a Rock Star, Photography Gallery Show, Comics Jam, Creative Clay, Doors Open Halton Hills at various locations, and much more.

A schedule of programs can also be picked up at the Georgetown and Acton branches of the Halton Hills Public Library, the Halton Hills Cultural Centre and the Red Door Gallery.

The Town has partnered Doors Open, the Halton Hills Chamber of Commerce, the Halton Hills Public Library, the Georgetown BIA, the Acton Town Hall Centre, the Halton Hills Cultural Roundtable and the Red Door Gallery to deliver these special programs and activities.

Doors Open is an annual, free event in Halton Hills when buildings normally closed to the public are wide open for a special peek!

Culture Days is a non-profit organization dedicated to building a national network of cultural connections.

Through an annual three-day national celebration that always begins on the last Friday of September, hundreds of thousands of artists and cultural organizations in hundreds of communities come together and invite Canadians to participate in free, interactive and behind-the-scenes activities to discover their cultural spirit and passion.
