Georgetown woman charged after Airport Rd. traffic stop

A 25-year-old Georgetown woman is facing charges after a traffic stop on Airport Rd. on Labour Day.

A Caledon OPP officer was conducting radar enforcement when the officer observed a grey-coloured Honda travelling at a high rate of speed. The officers conducted a traffic stop. Upon speaking with the female driver, the officer immediately detected a strong odour of alcohol on the driver s breath, police alleged in a press release.

Rebecca Marietta Kent-Chiasson, 25, from Georgetown, was charged with driving with more than 80 mg of alcohol in 100 ml of blood, and race a motor vehicle.

The 90-day Administrative Drivers Licence Suspension (ADLS) program was initiated and her motor vehicle was impounded for seven days. The accused was released from custody and is scheduled to make her first appearance at the Ontario Court of Justice in Orangeville on Sept. 15.

The allegations have not been proven in
