

UCHS China is ready for adult-only home

China is a six-year-old female American bulldog cross, white with brindle, a muscular 90 lbs., who was transferred to UCHS from another rescue.

As yet China has not garnered much interest but if you are a home with bulldog experience, you might want to consider China. She is housebroken with medium energy and would suit an adult only family or one with children over 16 years of age.

China will need work with her basic commands and interactions with other dogs and is not suitable for cats. The way to China's heart is lots of playtime with her favourite ball; this is when she is happiest. Vet visits should go well as staff had no problem giving ing her initial shots and her spay visit to the vets went well.

If China is placed in a family who understands the needs and stubbornness of bulldogs all should go well. If you feel you would be interested to meet her please call the shelter at 519-833-2287 or e.mail info@uppercredit.com and come and play ball!

NHKR: Ivy ready to make the big move

By Barb Johnson
info@nhkr.ca

16-month-old Ivy has had some problems with her health, but she is back to normal and ready to join a home. Submitted photo

Ivy came into the NHKR with two siblings all of whom had one eye undeveloped. With some wonderful vet care the kittens were patched up, were comfortable with their limitations and were adopted. Ivy was returned to NHKR when she developed litter box issues. It was thought other cats in the home were intimidating her but a vet examination revealed she needed a full dental extraction. With her painful gums healed, Ivy is once again an affectionate cat with no bad behaviour and is happily fostered with other cats.

Her foster family are mindful that she may not always see feet coming, so allow her more time when approaching her, otherwise Ivy has no difficulties navigating a household.

Ivy's had a rough start, given she is only 16 months old, but her gentle sweet personality is intact. She is the ultimate lap cat and will stay for as long as you will allow, purring quietly. She especially enjoys naps with her people, waiting until they are settled then she snuggles on top and is there for the duration. She enjoys a soft brushing and she accepts nail trimming as more attention. Ivy is a lovely gracious companion.

Her diet is mostly dry food and she enjoys a variety of canned food but she does not bother people for their food, which is probably why she maintains her trim figure. Ivy would enjoy a quieter home and she would be fine with older pets not wanting to engage in play. She is content to play with her toys and appreciates any attention she receives from people, even strangers.

Ivy, Anise and Tiger Lily will be available for adoption on Saturday at Pet Valu 375 Mountainview Rd. S. from 1:30-3 p.m.

Young kittens will be available for adoption at Pet Valu 235 Guelph St 10 a.m.-1 p.m.
