

Mackay nets Alumni Cup

Team Ontario won all six of its games en route to capturing the Alumni Cup under-15 boys Canadian Lacrosse Championship in Winnipeg earlier this month and the squad was backstopped by Halton Hills Bulldog Liam Mackay.

Ontario defeated B.C. 13-9 in the championship game of the five-team tournament held on the Labour Day weekend and Mackay saw action in all six matches, going the distance in the final.

The Christ the King Secondary student, who also plays for HardCor Lacrosse out of Oakville, allowed just 12 goals during the tournament. The Ontarians cruised through the preliminary round, posting victories over B.C. (10-6), Alberta (12-2), Manitoba (13-5) and Saskatchewan (12-0).

In the semifinal, Ontario downed Manitoba 16-2.

TEAM OF THE WEEK: The Georgetown Soccer Club hosted the Peel Halton District Soccer League Cup matches at Trafalgar Sports Park and the under-14 girls Mustangs defeated the Burlington Bay-hawks 2-1 in the final to claim the division title. Regan Sinden and Hannah Carruthers scored for the Mustangs in the championship game. By finishing first in the regular season standings with a 14-2-2 record, Georgetown's under-14s have a chance to compete for a spot in the Elite Division for next season. Team members are: Goalie Kathleen Reedman (forefront). Second row: Hannah Carruthers, Autumn Klimsiak, Paige Macaulay, Krysten Praught, Angela Marijanovic, Kyla Warren. Back row: Head coach John Williams, Paige Williams, Ariana Varas, Regan Sinden, Mackenzie Potvin, Grace Cameron, Riley Muise, Claire Francis, Hannah Burt, assistant coach Dino Varas. Submitted photo

Blades come to town Saturday

Daniel Berno, Ross Krieger, Jack Jacome and Bailey Molella also found net for Georgetown in its home opener in front of about 250 spectators at the Alcott Arena. Twenty-year-old goalkeeper Josh Astorino of Niagara Falls made 31 saves for the win.

In a transaction late this week, 19-year-old Marcus Paulino, a goalie signed by the Raiders during the summer, was dealt to the Orangeville Flyers without suiting up for a single game with Georgetown in exchange for veteran forward Ethan Wiseman.

Coming up this week, the Raiders travel to Whitby Thursday to take on the Fury and will host Oakville on Saturday at 7:30 p.m. The 3-1-0 Blades downed Georgetown 5-2 in the regular-season opener on Sept. 9.
