ART CLASSES
Looking for that perfect gift for someone who is creative and interested in art, but untrained? A gift certificate from Articulat Studio and Gallery might be the answer.

The studio will offer an "Emerging Images" art workshop for beginner adults at her studio on Highway 7, east of Rockwood on Tuesdays and Saturdays. Students will explore their creativity in two-hour workshops, beginning January 7. For details call 519-856-2801.

BENEFIT FEE WAIVED

Organizers of a Yuk Yuks' comedy night fundraiser for a young Rockwood dad fighting metastasized cancer will not have to pay to rent Rockmosa for the February 15 event.

Guelph/Eramosa Township Council agreed to waive the fee for the event and all proceeds will help the self-employed plumber pay his uninsured medical bills.

Foodland and First Rockwood Scouts are staging the event - the man is a Scouter.

KIWANIS CASH

Once again, Guelph/Eramosa Township will donate two $100 prizes to winners in the Kiwanis Music Festival of Guelph. The 33rd edition takes place in late March and April.

The Festival's 1,200 entrants will provide 250 hours of music to 6,000 audience members - and anxious parents - over three weeks.
