

POLICE & FIRE REPORT

TOOLS TAKEN

Six thousand dollars worth of tools and equipment were stolen during a break-in at the Mill Street Crossing on May 28. The owner told police he arrived at work to find a side door open, but there were no signs of a forced entry.

DUMPSTER DOUSE

Fire officials couldn't say exactly where on Queen St. East this happened, but at 9:17 last Sunday morning, a store supervisor dumped a bucket of water on smouldering, smoking material in a dumpster adjacent to a drive-through.

FALSE ALARM

Fumes from aerosol paint can accidentally set off the alarm system at St. Joseph Catholic School at 9:23 a.m. on May 21.

BUSINESS OF THE MONTH: X Marks the Fitness Spot was named as the Acton BIA (Business Improvement Area) Business of the Month for June. BIA officials Paul Latour (left), and Jenn Everson presented the award to X Marks the Fitness Spot owner Kevin Harris, with help from BIA Chair Dana Selby. - Submitted photo
