

STUFFED STOCKINGS: Mary-Ann Austin helps auctioneer Doug Donaldson during last Sunday's Stocking Auction held at the Acton Town Hall Centre. Almost fifty stockings were sold, all generously stuffed with products, services, and gift certificates from local businesses and residents. Proceeds from the auction will go to Heritage Acton to assist in the on-going renovations at the Town Hall. - Ted Tyler photo

CLOSE TO HOME: Roxy Coffee held an open house on Saturday, December 6 to celebrate "Going Local", providing sample tastings of products from local businesses that they are now using as suppliers for their deli foods and coffee. Madeline Altrell, Wendy Tavender and Mary-Ellen Stanley handed out samples of breads, cheese, treats and other foods from local Acton merchants. - Ted Tyler photo

PLANTS A'PLENTY: Willemina Van Donkersgoed and Hannah Wang helped to unload and hand out more than 750 Pointsettia plants at Bethel Church recently for their sale of the seasonal plants. Proceeds from the sale will go to the Acton Cadets and Bethel Church - Ted Tyler photo
