SENIORS RECREATION CENTRES

415 QUEEN ST. E. ACTON

By Julie Conroy

If you are interested in going to see Calendar Girls on Sunday, May 26 please check the sign up sheet for more information. The price for the tickets includes the bus and tip. If everyone is interested we will stop after, for dinner in Guelph at either Angels Family Diner, or Heritage Fish and Chips. Dinner is not included in ticket price. There are several other restaurants on the Gordon/ Hwy 7 corner. I do need the money as soon as possible so I can reserve the seats.

On Tuesday, March 12 at 1:30 p.m., there will be an interesting presentation from Everyday Style. It's a home party type show with products for entertainment, cooking, and ornaments. Now is your chance to find a present for that hard to buy for person, or a gift for yourself.

Tickets are on sale for the next social dinner on Thursday, March 14. We will be celebrating St Patrick's Day a little early. Kent Tocher will be providing the music, and we will be enjoying Irish beef stew and another special dessert. You know what that means, something very special.

Tuesday, March 5 is our annual general meeting. Please try to attend. We will be voting for some new board members. There will be light refreshments following the meeting.

Lunch on Friday, March 8 will be sliders, (mini hamburgers) and sweet potato fries. Hopefully the weather will be kinder this time and we will not have to close the Centre.

If you are planning on going to Rama on Wednesday, March 27 you have to visit the Centre to add your name to the list and pay. You will receive a cash register slip to show you have paid and the person on the desk will also mark paid against your name on the list. This brings the Rama trip in line with other trips and follows the long standing Acton Senior Centres' travel procedures guide lines.

If you have signed up for the Brantford Casino the date has been changed from Wednesday, April 10 to Thursday, April 11.

Frances Hogenbirk had the only mooner at Bid Euchre on Thursday afternoon.

Over the past few weeks more leaves have been added to our Tree of Hope. One from the St

Lucia Gang 2013, one in memory of Ronald Frank Brooker, a relative of Kathleen and Bryan Alder and three in memory of Donna Rowley from her relatives in England. People think the leaves only represent someone who has passed away, but they can commemorate any occasion, happy or sad.

On a sad note, Alison Coulter passed away last week. We will miss seeing her around the Centre. She loved to play darts on Monday mornings, and for many years helped her mother Joyce with the Friday lunches and together they organized the Spring and Christmas Bazaar teas. She will be missed. The Centre would like to extend condolences to her parents, Joyce and Tony Marrows, her husband John and their families.

The weekly 50/50 was not won this Friday. The amount to be won next Friday should be around $200.
