

Acton aces Chamber Business Awards

HOME HARDWARE: Business of the Year awardees, Acton Home Hardware owners Bill and Val Manes (centre), accepted their award from Prosperity One's Mike Shepherd (left), Chamber Chair Glen MacDonald, Mayor Rick Bonnette and Halton Chair Gary Carr.

Their dynamic, highly ethical, and customer-first approaches to business earned two Acton business owners and one employee top honours from the Halton Hills Chamber of Commerce.

The recipients received much deserved praise, plaques and best wishes at the 2012 Business Achievement

Awards at the Club at North Halton last Wednesday night.

NANCY LAROSE: Her enthusiasm and service with a smile at the Salvation Army Thrift Shop earned Acton's Nancy LaRose the Employee of the Year award, which she accepted from left: Mayor Rick Bonnette, Chamber Chair Glen MacDonald, Halton Chair Gary Carr and Wellington-Halton Hills MPP Ted Arnott.

ANDREA CLARK: Growing her business helped Acton's Andrea Clark of Tanner's Pub & Grill earn the Entrepreneur of the Year award. She accepted the plaque from John Davidson, Halton's Director of Economic Development.

GEORGETOWN BIA: Its environmental preservation work through conservation efforts earned the Georgetown BIA (Business Improvement Area) the Green award. Wendy Farrow Reed accepted the award with BIA member, former Chamber president Sandy McKenzie (left) and award sponsor, Ben Lyman of Cogeco Cable.
