

Home and Leisure Show success

With 38 vendors and an estimated 1,300 guests over two days, the bi-annual Halton Hills Chamber of Commerce Home and Leisure Show in Georgetown was a success according to Chamber president Sue Walker. The event at Mold-Masters SportsPlex featured prizes and give-aways, home improvement demonstrations and advice from experts on varied interests including travel, decorating, health, automotive, real estate, entering, gardening and recreation.

Photos by Marie Shadbolt

AUTO PUTTS: The focus was on putting at the Georgetown Chrysler booth as general sales manager Andrew Donnahee encouraged a potential customer.

REALTY NEWS: Visitors to Re/Max realtors Don Campbell (left) Richard McKeown and Norm Paget talk about opportunities in the local housing market.

SPRING SPRUCE-UP: Spring is a busy time for David O'Drowsky of Great Lakes Landscape Contracting Inc. of Crewson's Corners who showcased barbecues, brickwork and environmentally-friendly products at his booth

BEARS & BENCH: Acton's Leathertown Lumber owner Anthony Farr encouraged people to fill out ballots for a child's park bench. Georgetown's Bonnie O'Brien was the winner – including the two stuffed bears on the bench at Leathertown's booth

HOUSING HELP: Acton Royal LePage Escarpment Realty's Linda Olson (left) and assistant Sarah Mast touted the benefits of the local housing market.