415 QUEEN ST. E. ACTON

AUTHENTIC FOOD & DRESS: The focus was on the food, customs and clothing of Iceland, as Acton's Dorothy Rognvaldson briefed members of the Acton Seniors Centre recently on her trip to Iceland. - Julie Conroy photo

This week is the last week of featuring members of the Acton Seniors Centre during Seniors' Month. I hope you enjoy reading about Sylvia and Chris Mitchell who travelled many miles before making Rockwood their home.

The June social dinner celebrating

Seniors' Month was a great success, with 85 people attending. Mayor Rick Bonnette greeted everyone on behalf of the town and presented Ontario Volunteer Service Awards to Pat and Bev Jones, Shirley Loucks and Wilda Tressel. Ruth Burke and Helen Hore received theirs on a different occasion.

Mayor Rick, helped serve the lasagna with the assistance of Councillors Michael O'Leary and Clark Somerville, and Samantha Kleinschmidt, Manager of Recreational Services plus our own co-ordinator Wendy Krever and Administrative Assistant Michelle Durham.

The Board members also were put to work helping set up, serve and clear dishes following the dinner, which everyone enjoyed, along with the lovely voice of Laura Pauline Mamone.

Marj Allan, Myra Sartor, Carol Butts, Wilda Tressel, Helen Croghan, Bill Sanford, Marg Bromby and Mary Walsma received the door prizes, and Irma Palacios won the 50/50.

When I arrived on Friday morning ten enthusiastic hikers were waiting to set off on their hike and for a change, the sun was shining and it was a perfect day for hiking.

At bid euchre, Ruth Burke had the only mooner. It's nice to see more people playing Bridge. There is always room for more people to play cards on Thursdays.

Vicky from the Halton Hills Library will be here on Tuesday, June 25 talking about Coffee, Books, and Computers. Thinking of books, ask Vicky about the Daisy readers we have here at the Centre available for members use.

On Wednesday, June 26 to celebrate Seniors' Month the Acton Public Library has free try it Yoga, and Nordic Pole Walking or you can see a presentation on Travel Tips. Stacey Aarsen made a presentation at the Centre last year, and it was very informative.

Lunch on Friday, June 28 will be fish and chips, and lemon pie.

The weekly 50/50 was not won this week.
