Bulldogs host playoff game Saturday

Although Seth Laidlaw has one year left of junior eligibility, he is the last in a long line of family ties to the Bulldogs' organization. His brothers, Tim, Matt and most recently Peter were Dog Pound mainstays and cousin Luke is in his last year. Dad Terry was also an assistant coach of the team at one stage. "Yes, I'm the last of the Laidlaws for this generation," said Seth, a second-year business student at Wilfrid Laurier University. "After I'm done playing, I might get into coaching."...

Another of the Founders Cup alumni, 6-foot-4 Dustin Hanzelka, has made the successful switch from goalie to defenceman this year due to work commitments, conceding that his absences from practice would mean he wasn't facing enough shots to be an effective stopper in games...MacDonald isn't the only Princeton property on the Bulldog roster. Native New Yorker Sean Connors will play field lacrosse for the Tigers...Impressive-looking rookie defender Theo Dol is headed for Virginia University on a field scholarship.
