

SPOTLIGHT ... on Canada Day

What's more Canadian than a picnic in the park on Canada Day. MP Michael Chong served up some pizza to his kids (from left) five-year-old Alistair, three-year-old Cameron and eight-year-old William.

Photos by Jon Borgstrom

Oliver and Anne Sragg have a chat before the parade begins.

Once again the Acton Fire Fighters Association put on a spectacular fireworks show for the community. It was preceded by a BIA concert in the park.

Photo by Ray Lavender

Five-year-old Alex Freeman was happy to be Canadian and proud to show it.

The popular Rubber Ducky race raises funds for GDHS swim team. Here a student promoted the race in the parade.

All sorts participated in the noon parade including children on their decorated bikes and older folks riding in older vehicles.

Photos by Jon Borgstrom

For more Canada Day photos from our readers go to www.theifp.ca/photos

Cottage Life, at Home.

Emerald Isle

HOME FURNISHINGS

905-873-2753

265 GUELPH ST., GEORGETOWN