

Acton's Leathertown Festival

Photos by Ted Tyler & Frances Learment

STREET SONGS: Brendan Stephen and Willow Walker of Kitchener drew large crowds with their spirited vaudevillian songs.

POLISHED & PRETTY: Lovingly restored cars – and a trike – were on display on Willow Street.

JUGGLING JOY: Boggle the Clown entertained the crowd with the juggling and balloon-making skills, much to the delight of Maddie and Breanna McBride of Milton.

STYLISH RIDE: Mckayla Scott of Limehouse, Guelph's Milford Dedman and Alaura Popp of Acton checked out the Acton Firefighters Association's lovingly restored 1926 Bickle/Studebaker fire truck.

PIE, ANYONE? Trinity United Church's Arlene Bruce helped serve countless slices of home-made pie to hungry Festival fans.

BLUES BAND: The Johnny Max Band belted out the blues, encouraging the crowd to get up and dance at one of two stages.
