Exotic animals prohibited in Halton Hills

In light of the recent tragic deaths of two young boys in New Brunswick from asphyxiation following the escape of a python, the Town reminds all pet owners of their specific responsibilities concerning their pets and of the prohibition of owning and keeping exotic animals within the Town.

The Town of Halton Hills Responsible Pet Owner By-law, By-law No.1994-0077, prohibits anyone from keeping an exotic animal within the Town of Halton Hills. An exotic animal is defined as "any member of the animal kingdom of living beings NOT indigenous to Canada." A complete list of prohibited exotic animals can be found in Appendix "D" of the bylaw. <http://www.haltonhills.ca/bylaws/pdf/1994-0077.pdf>.

"The sad deaths of the two young boys in Campbellton, New Brunswick reminds us of the seriousness of this issue. The Town is committed to ensuring the safety of all residents and will strictly enforce our by-law," said Mayor Rick Bonnette.

If you have any questions, please call the Town at 905-873-2601, ext. 2600.
