

LEGION NEWS
 BRANCH No. 197 By Sharon Graham P.R.O.

Comrades,
 Remember that your membership chair is starting his early bird campaign. It runs until November 30, so if you would like to be an early bird you can pay your dues now until the end of November.
 This Sunday is the fun euchre tournament at the Royal Canadian Legion Branch 197 from 12 noon with the start time of 1 p.m., sharp. There will be a barbecue after the games, so come on out for an afternoon of fun.

 Men's crib is back on Thursday, October 24 at 7:30 p.m. It is always a good night for the men. If you are interested in joining why not come out? It is open to anyone, and they are looking for new players. You do not have to be a member of the Legion.
 On October 25, we are having a Hallowe'en dance and karaoke night from 8 to 12 p.m. Get out your costume as there will be a prize for the best dressed. Also we are having a pumpkin carving contest with more details to follow. It will be a great night. Everyone is welcome and costumes are optional.

 The Branch is open on Sunday, so come on out and enjoy.
 In a little over a month we will have our Poppy Campaign and we have almost 600 members. We need your help. When you took an oath to become a member you agreed to help with the Poppies. We need members to do three or four streets in your neighbourhood. It will not take too long and the more help we get means less work. Please if you can help leave your name and number at the bar and thank you in advance.

Good deals at Acton sales and market

- Ted Tyler photos

GENTLY USED: There were great deals and good finds on Saturday at the Mom 2 Mom sale at St. Alban's Anglican Church. Acton's Laura Vanderleest was one of the vendors who did a brisk business with good crowds of savvy shoppers.

CASH & COINS: Georgetown's Norman Dennis enjoyed good weather and reasonable crowds at the Acton Trunk Sale on Saturday.

ESTATE SALE: Sports memorabilia, high-end electronics and the kitchen sink were for sale on Saturday at a well-attended McDonald Boulevard garage sale.

FRESH FEAST: Melanie Gallant and Alfonzo of Teresa's Garden Centre in Milton enjoyed a sunny day with throngs of shoppers last Thursday at the Acton Farmers' Market
