Acton Leathertown Festival this Sunday

Come down and Join the Calithumpian Parade.

Do you want to be part of Acton's history? This year will mark the 20th anniversary of the Leathertown Festival and we are going back to our roots. We are featuring "Back To Acton Days" and a Calithumpian Parade. What's that you say? A Calithumpian Parade is a loud, boisterous parade, something that was done years ago during "Back To Acton Days." Bring your pots and pans and dress up in a zany outfit and join the parade. The parade will start at 11:30 a.m. at opposite of the festival, Main Street and Eastern Avenue. We will march each group from each end to the main stage in the United Church parking lot in time for the opening ceremonies at 12:00 noon.

To celebrate the occasion we will be serving cake at the main stage right after the opening ceremonies.

Our entertainment this year will be a tribute show featuring, Johnny Cash, June Carter, Neil Diamond and of course Elvis. There will also be a tribute to Hannah Montana and Justin Bieber. We have a special guest this year, Acton's very own Lil' Bautista (aka Curtis Hopkins). Stop by the Acton BIA booth and get his autograph.

In the Kids Zone the internationally famous Stylamanders will be performing as well as the McGinley Academy of Irish Dance. Don't forget to sign up for the Dominos Pizza Eating Contest and the Global Pet Food Dog Show all happening at the Kids Zone.

There will be a host of vendors this year and don't forget to stop in at our downtown restaurants and try their fine food and refreshments. Come and enjoy the fun, food and entertainment.

Don't 'cha dare miss it!
