SONG & DANCE: With silly songs, crazy choreography and yo-yo tricks, Mark Kersey (left) and Paul Gibson – The Stylamanders Kids’ Show – entertained the crowds.

Approximately 5,000 people partied, shopped, ate and were entertained during the 20th edition of the Leathertown Festival on Sunday. It was a retro event as organizers – the Acton BIA and a small army of dedicated volunteers – commemorated the Back to Acton Days which evolved into the Leathertown Festival. Photos by Ted Tyler and Marie Shadbolt.

DANCE DIVAS: Members of the TDI – Total Dance Innovation – including Brie Lirette (top), Kylie Mitchell and Madison Horrell (middle) and Abby Green, Jamie Trowbridge and Tina Trowbridge demonstrated their talents following a dance demonstration on the street by club members.

TO THE TOP: Katelyn and Jenna Pruter raced each other up the climbing wall, showing power and agility in the kids’ zone at the Festival.

BIEBER BOY: Scott Auguste – appearing as Just Bieber – had an appreciative crowd singing and dancing during the tribute show.

AIR BORNE: Acton dentist Dr. Jones Chan was all smiles as he hosted a bouncy castle during the Festival.
