

Acton RONA MS Ride raises $300,000

A team of well-conditioned and motivated cyclists from Acton's Staying Alive Fitness raised $15,000 for the fight against muscular sclerosis on the RONA MS Bike Tour that began and ended in Prospect Park on the weekend.

The first group of 437 riders left Acton at 8 Saturday morning, and the fastest arrived in Waterloo by noon. One of the fastest returning riders on Sunday was Rob Bissell of Mississauga who clocked in at two hours. The return trip was 225 kilometres.

Province-wide, MS Bike Tour events raised $300,000 and counting. Event officials report there were no injuries or mishaps.
