IN MEMORIAM

Roy Sidhu
 August 26, 2005

To Dad, Love Roy

*I've been away for six years
 A blink in eternity, though time has crept
 I've watched you, all the tears
 you've shed
 The nights you haven't slept
 But Dad please don't you weep for me
 You know that I'm not gone
 The best gift you could give to me
 Is the strength to carry on So Dad just love my brother Even though your wills are strong
 Be the hand that guides him home
 Even when you think he's wrong
 And give my hugs to Grandma
 Tell Grampa that I'm fine Feed my friends and fix their cars
 If for the hundredth time.
 Walk tall, keep you head high
 Our family looks to you
 Not to burden, but to guide
 For this is what you do.
 I know it's not been easy
 And I know I can't be there And there is no flame enough to light
 The darkness of despair
 But loving all that I have loved
 You show your love to me
 So smile for me Dad, til we meet again
 I'll see you at the tree.*

We love and miss you, Roy
 The Sidhu Family and all your friends
