Skill upgrades

Are You Looking For Employment, But Need To Upgrade Your Skills?

Why not jump two hurdles at once? Learn how to use a computer and use this skill to help with employability, cover letter writing and more. Workshops cover the basics of Windows, Word, file management, email and the internet.

The Adult Learning Centre is urging adults in Acton currently looking for work to register early for their upcoming basic computer training course. This course is suitable for adults 19 and older who need to upgrade their skills for employment or further training.

Registration is currently underway and space is limited. Classes are scheduled to run Wednesday evenings in Acton for a 10-week period.

If you need to upgrade your reading, writing or basic math skills, the Adult Learning Centre can also assist you. Adult students are matched with volunteer tutors either one-on-one or in small groups. Lessons are held at various locations throughout the community.

Adult volunteer tutors needed! Would you like to give something back to your community? Would you like to help another adult improve their essential skills in reading, writing, math and computers? Can you spare three hours a week? Training is provided.

To find out more about registering for the Fall computer courses, to speak to someone about a more general learning program or current volunteer opportunities, please contact the Adult Learning Centre at 905-873-2200 or www.literacynh.org
