

Looking for work?

The Region's Employment Halton program will host its annual job fair on Wednesday, October 19, from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. at the Burlington Convention Centre. The job fair is open to the public, and will include many employers from across Halton. Admission is free. "We have a variety of employers registered for this year's fair showcasing great job opportunities that exist in Halton," said Halton Regional Chair Gary Carr. "This is an excellent opportunity. Anyone who is searching for a new job can visit the job fair to learn more about what Halton employers have to offer."

Last year, over 1,500 skilled and motivated job seekers networked with 49 employers from across Halton at the job fair. In addition to the opportunity to meet with employers in Halton, job seekers attending the job fair can have their résumés assessed for free.
