

HALTON HILLS SENIORS RECREATION CENTRES ACTON

When Dobbie Frizzell, our property chair was taking inventory last week, he noticed we were still missing two of our white card table tablecloths. They have been missing for a while he says. Were you kind enough to take some home to launder and forgotten to return them? If so please return them to the front desk. For certain functions (such as the upcoming Bazaar) we need all the cloths.

On Tuesday, November 15, a full Great Canadian coach transported members and friends to Niagara Fallsview Casino. Everyone enjoyed the day. Donna mentioned on the bus she had seen several members clutching a fist full of notes at the end of the day. I didn't hear anyone cheering loudly, except Teresa Downey who won the 50/50 draw on the bus down to the Casino.

The birthday Tea was on the same day, and 11 members and their guests enjoyed the cake and ice cream.

Over 100 members and guests enjoyed the delicious dinner last Wednesday evening. On the menu were ham and scalloped potatoes, plus cauliflower and carrots, followed by a choice of either cherry or blueberry pie. After the dinner, we were entertained by Kim Keaton who sang a variety of music ranging from the 40's to the latest current hits. Carman Bissonette was happy to win $101 in the 50/50 draw and the door prize winners were Yvonne Van Der Heyden, Catherine Hunt, Dorothy Rognvaldson, Margot Bollert, Deb Rennie, Bill Patterson, Ann Drysdale, Dee Clarke, Heinz Rusche, and Kathy Sanford.

Have you purchased your ticket for the Christmas Dinner on Thursday, December 1 at Blue Springs Golf Club? It has the makings of a gala evening, with a turkey buffet dinner followed by two hours of pure enjoyment whether dancing, singing along, or listening to the music of Juke Box. The tickets are on sale now.

We hope to see a great crowd at our annual Christmas Bazaar on Saturday in the community hall. Lunch will be served next door in the Centre (just along the hall). You can catch your breath, relax and enjoy a sit down. There will be no sales before the doors open at 11 a.m., so there will be a huge selection of baked goods, and crafts ready for Christmas and the holiday season. Are you looking for a projection screen to show your home movies? We will have one for sale at the Granny's Attic stall.

The movie being shown on Tuesday, November 29 at 1:00 p.m. is The Holiday. This is a wonderfully romantic, feel good movie.

There is a sign up sheet at the front desk for the annual Tour of Light on Wednesday, December 14. The bus will pick up at the usual spots: Birchway Place, Elizabeth Drive, and Church Street apartments, and the Acton Seniors Centre. We have to thank Ted Tyler and his staff for making this possible each year. We will have a hot drink and goodies to warm you, when you return to the Centre before being returned to your pick up points.

The 50/50 was not won this week, so next week the prize should be around $150.
