

HALTON HILLS SENIORS RECREATION CENTRES

ACTON

The mystery lunch is a mystery no longer. The Friday lunch ladies and Joyce's son Peter cooked and served a delicious turkey dinner with all the trimmings to 40 members. It was a very festive occasion, with punch, and for desert, yoghurt parfait, and a little treat to take home. I am sure everyone enjoys the Friday lunches, but without additional help they may have been cancelled or not held as frequently. If you can help please give Joyce a call, or leave your name at the front desk.

The weeks building up to Christmas are very busy at the Acton Seniors Centre. Last week, we had the junior and senior choirs from St Joseph Catholic School entertain us with wonderful singing. They looked very Christmassy with their Santa hats, reindeer antlers, and pretty dresses. Everyone enjoyed them. In the afternoon, Fifth Avenue Jewellery was here, and people purchased some of the beautiful articles either as a gift for someone else, or for themselves.

If you are visiting friends over the holiday season and are looking for the perfect hostess gift, our delicious Christmas fruit cakes fit the bill. We even have people take them south for their extended winter holidays.

Just a little reminder to our snowbirds. Memberships should be renewed by December 31. It is a bargain at $25 per year. Approximately 100 (one third) of our members have renewed their membership.

It may have been a dark and rainy evening on Wednesday, December 13, but the colourful displays of lights shone out brightly. Eleven people enjoyed touring in the Tyler bus, visiting various locations in Georgetown, Norval and Acton. The Centre would like to thank Ted Tyler for donating the bus, again this year, the volunteer driver, Willy Halladay, Pat Frizzell who helped research the best lighting displays, and Sylvia Mitchell who accompanied the group. Waiting at the Centre with goodies and hot drinks were our own Santa's helpers, Mary Walsma and Connie Fix.

Are you home between Christmas and the New Year? The Centre will be open from Tuesday, December 27 to Friday, December 30. There will be no movie on the Tuesday, but the usual schedule includes the exercise classes on Wednesday, cards on Thursday, and lunch, bingo and shuffle board on the Friday.

The next social dinner will be on Monday, January 9. Help us celebrate New Year a little late with Swiss Chalet chicken, baked potatoes, and for dessert Chudleighs' Apple Blossoms and ice cream. Juke Box will be providing music with a B Gee's theme. It should be lots of fun. A great start to the New Year and a chance to kick up our heels again.

Have a wonderful Christmas and a Happy and Healthy New Year.

The 50/50 was not won last Friday, so the amount should be around $150 on Friday.

George, Family & Staff wish everyone a very happy and safe Christmas & New Year

We look forward to serving you in 2012
